BLESSED BY YOUR PROMISES OF FAITH

We were so excited to learn of your response to our Faith Promise Sunday on Sunday, April 28. We celebrate with you what God will do with your generosity as we received more than $80,000 to support our missional efforts through the Faith Promise. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

"Our congregation's response to the Faith Promise Challenge was truly reflective of this church's commitment to making a difference in people's lives and of their trust in God's ability to provide those resources needed to accomplish that task," senior pastor Randy Frye said. "I am so glad to be part of a church that is willing to respond to the cry, 'Come over and help us!'"

If you were not able to make your Faith Promise Commitment, please feel free to contact Dee Dee Seals at 689-5175 or by email at dseals@fountaincityumc.org.

To begin paying towards your Faith Promise Commitment, you may write a check and mark "Faith Promise" in the memo line. You may pay with cash by putting cash in an envelope with your name and "Faith Promise" on the envelope.

June is a month of transitions. Students leave high school and get ready for college, college students graduate and prepare to embark on their careers, and of course, many couples take the step of marriage (and, of course, June is the most popular month for that) and transition into a whole new experience of life. In the United Methodist Church, we also view June as the month of transition. It is the time when we go to Annual Conference and the time when we say good-bye to pastors who have served so devotedly and prepare to welcome new pastors into our lives.

At Fountain City, we will be saying goodbye to Melissa Smith and give thanks for the 12 years of wonderful ministry she has given to our church. We will also have the opportunity to welcome Amy Aycok onto our staff and look forward to all that she will bring to our ministries.

Transition is never easy – whether it is in school, our personal lives or our church. There is always a sense in which something with which we are familiar and something which we have depended upon is taken away from us. In those times of transition we need something to which we can cling, a rock that will not crumble. And that rock, according to the Scriptures, is Jesus, who is “the same yesterday, today and forever.”

In all of the changes of life, my prayer is that we may be drawn to him, cling to Him, and allow his love to calm our anxiety, give us clarity of vision, and embrace us with an abiding peace.

In Him,
Randy

DANIEL OGLE NAMED ASSOCIATE PASTOR FOR CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Staff-Parish Relations Committee is pleased to announce that Daniel Ogle, who is projected to begin his fourth year of serving FCUMC in June, has been named Associate Pastor for Connectional Ministries.

Ogle has primary responsibility for providing leadership in The Journey contemporary worship service, developing and adapting the church’s external communication strategy and ministry, and developing the church’s ministry with college students and young adults.

“Daniel’s background in communications and journalism and his connection with young adults will serve him well in his new focus,” senior pastor Randy Frye said. “It will allow the pastoral staff to be more intentional about our work and our congregation will be blessed by the thought provoking and challenging sermons he brings each week in our times of worship.”

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT NATHAN MALONE TO PREACH IN THE JOURNEY

We are honored to welcome Knoxville District Superintendent Nathan Malone to preach in The Journey contemporary worship service on Sunday, June 23.

We are excited to welcome Nathan again to our church, and we celebrate that Nathan is the first Knoxville District Superintendent to preach in The Journey.

Senior pastor Randy Frye will be leading the Guatemala Mission Team from June 21-29, and we are grateful for Nathan’s willingness to bless us with his preaching of the word.

Please plan to join us to welcome and hear Nathan!

IMAGINE NO MALARIA UPDATE

Since last June, Imagine No Malaria has been a focus of the United Methodist Church in Holston Conference with the goal of saving 100,000 lives in Africa from the curse of Malaria by raising one million dollars as an annual conference.

We have tried to do our part to try make this kingdom dream a reality – and, of course, have done it with our usual creativity and unpredictability.

Through the end of May, we have saved 1,500 lives by raising more than $15,000 for Imagine No Malaria in a variety of ways. A Sunday School class passed a hat, Michael Swanger auctioned off the chance to cut his flowing locks of hair, Ed Ripley found four-leaf clovers, children saved 18 lives through a lemonade stand, and many showed us why they should be the next American Idol in a church-wide talent show dreamed up and inspired by Max Buttram.

We are so blessed by your passion to be a church committed to changing and saving lives in the name of Jesus!

BLESSINGS OVERFLOW FOR MISSIONS AT RUMMAGE SALE

Amazing blessings overflowed at the church rummage sale Saturday as the United Methodist Women raised $4,340 for missions.

A million thank you's to everyone who set up, donated, sorted, worked the sale, cleaned up, shopped and prayed. It is just amazing what we all can do in our own church hallways, gym, and meeting rooms in just two days.

The remaining items were distributed to our mission passions: adult clothes/shoes to Lost Sheep Ministries/Angelic Ministries; children/teen clothes to Jubilee in Sneedville; remaining items to Goodwill Industries; vases/bowls/baskets to Random Acts of Flowers. The Net and our Preschool found items too. For the 30 Hour Famine, Diakanos raised $150 selling biscuits and popcorn in the gym during the sale.

Praise be to God for the great blessings He bestowed on our church this past weekend!

- Julie Knoefel
